The Road

I was walking down this long road
Looking for someone who could guide me
Lonely and scared, yes, I was crying
I wiped my eyes so I could see.

There stood a man on the roadside
He said, "Come, I'll lead the way
Just take My hand and I will show you
You must be careful not to stray."

As we walked that road together
I was amazed at all He said
He spoke of life, peace, and love
And the plan His Father had.

He told me of the pain He'd suffered
And how they nailed Him to the Tree
And that His blood was the Atonement
It was the price - He'd paid for me.

Then I cried, "Jesus, My Lord and Savior
I have found You at long last
Please take me Lord, to Your Kingdom
Would You forgive me - Of my past?"

And He said, "Child, I have been with you
Longer than you'll ever know
Just take My hand and I will lead you
Because without Me. . . you can not go."

For each of us God has designed a road, full of love, joy and beauty, but we are the ones who must decide whether or not to travel that road. Like any road, it will have its potholes and its newly paved sections, it will have its sharp turns and its straight ways, and it will have its forks and its detours.

The theme for this year's Nautilus focuses on the journey down the road that we all travel. Through the rough patches and the easy spots the most important thing is that we focus on the One who is guiding us. Nothing can compare to knowing that we are not walking the road alone.

During our journey down the road we must make decisions about which fork to take. It is decisions like these which determine what the rest of the road will hold. Decisions such as where to go to college, what major to choose, and what to do when college is over. But if we listen to God's still small voice, He will guide us in our decisions and help us choose the right way.

The hardest thing is staying on the road. There are so many distractions which can keep us from getting to where God wants us to be. At some time or another, we have all wandered off the road and tried a path of our own. It is only after trying our own path that we realize we are miles away from where we should be.

The road that we travel is not our own, but God's; He designed the road, but it's up to us to stay on it. Don't worry about where God is leading you - He knows what He's doing. It's true, without God we can go nowhere. So take His hand and let Him lead you down the road.

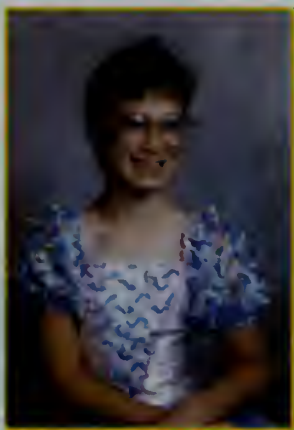

In Him,

In Memory and Dedication of Sarah Elizabeth Taylor

January 21, 1983 - February 7, 2002

"Commit your way to the Lord; trust in Him and He will do this: He will make your righteousness shine like the dawn, the justice of your cause like the noonday sun." ~Psalm 37:5-6

Freshman Sarah Taylor touched the lives of many during the short time she spent at ENC. She set an example for us all on how to love unconditionally and put other people before ourselves. Sarah celebrated life and had a boundless love for God. Sarah was greatly loved and will be greatly missed. However, we know that now Sarah is with our Heavenly Father and is happier than ever before. Sarah will forever live in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Dear Seniors,

As you depart from Eastern Nazarene College and embark on the next part of your journey, may you take with you the happy memories and Godly spiritual truths you have learned. And when life's journey hits some detours, may you draw on that knowledge. So go out, and let your life shine for Jesus!

Best of Luck & God Bless,
Debbie Titus
Sarah Taylor's mother

"May the road rise to meet you. May the wind always be at your back. May the sun shine warm upon your face, the rains fall softly upon your fields and, until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand."

~An Irish Blessing

Sarah Elizabeth Taylor was a great friend and a very special person. She was a strong Christian and a great encouragement to her friends and others in their faith. She attended every chapel except for two, which she missed only because she was travelling home. In addition to chapel, she was a member of a small group Bible study and of SALT. Sarah participated in all these activities with a huge amount of enthusiasm because that's the kind of person she was; she loved God. She was very involved in missions and it was through this that she felt God's call to be a medical missionary. She encouraged others in their faith through example, prayer and theological discussions.

Although most of us knew Sarah for less than six months, it was very extraordinary being her friend because she was so warm and caring. She sent us cards because she knew that we would be excited to actually get mail. She always had an open ear if any of us wanted to talk.

If we were trying to go somewhere and got lost (which happened frequently), Sarah was always optimistic about it and called it an adventure.

In addition to being a faithful Christian and a great friend, Sarah was also a diligent worker. On one occasion, it had slipped her mind to go to work at the library. When she realized this, she became very upset at herself for letting down the other workers.

Sarah was also a very dedicated student, and her grades reflected this. She always wanted to do just a little bit better in her classes. When she received her fall semester grades she was generally pleased, but disappointed that she only got an A- in chemistry which blemished her otherwise perfect transcript.

To say that Sarah is missed would be an understatement. For many people, she brought joy to what would otherwise would be a mediocre day. We will think of her everyday and look forward to the day when we will see her in Heaven. Until then we must remember that she is happy and in a better place.

~In memory of Sarah Elizabeth Taylor, from her friends

The Road Remembered

Remembering September 11, 2001

"The salvation of the righteous comes from the Lord; He is their stronghold in times of trouble. The Lord helps them and delivers them; He delivers them from the wicked and saves them, because they take refuge in Him." ~Psalm 37:39-40

Our world was forever changed on September 11, 2001 when hijacked terrorist planes collided into the twin towers of the World Trade Center, the Pentagon, and a Pennsylvania field. Thousands of lives were lost in that tragedy and millions more filled with grief, fear and little hope for the future.

But we know that there is hope for the future, hope found in our Father in heaven who works good through every situation, even the tragedy of September 11. This tragedy has brought together our nation once again and we've been united under God.

So let us remember September 11, not only as a time of grief and sorrow, but as a time of unity and faith in our Savior who leads us down the road.

During a candlelight vigil, ENC students pray for the victims of September 11, 2001.

The south tower of the World Trade Center begins to collapse.

A Word From Mike Schutz

Of all the words used to describe the followers of Jesus, my favorite is probably "pilgrim." The imagery of pilgrimage is such an appropriate description of our faith, and "fellow pilgrims," those who journey together, is an apt description of our lives together at ENC.

The academic year 2001-2002, described in pictures and words in this issue of Nautilus, has certainly been a journey. Like all journeys, each person experiences it differently.

All of us will remember certain markers, events which made a lasting impression. September 11, 2001 will never again be simply a date, but a clear memory of shock, terror, heroism, and resolve. Yet for many of us, that international event had personal meaning which changed our life and the lives around us in ways which will not be fully known for years to come. In another event which pales in comparison, but which would have served as the highlight of the year if not for September 11, we watched the New England Patriots triumph as underdogs, winning Super Bowl XXXVI. Quite a few ENCers skipped classes on the Tuesday after, joining with over a million others for a parade through downtown Boston.

Such large events, which are shared by masses, are interspersed with personal events of no less importance. The same week as the Super Bowl celebration, found us grieving the loss of a student, friend, and fellow pilgrim, as freshman Sarah Taylor died suddenly on February 7, 2002. A memorial service the next day offered us the opportunity to mourn our loss with her family, while celebrating Sarah's life and faith.

As you look at the pictures of this year, some will remind you of great moments of personal victory and celebration, of quiet moments with soft smiles and tears, others of pain and sorrow. What makes this yearbook special is not just the memories it brings to mind. Every page says something more. It reminds us that the road we travelled at ENC in 2001-2002 we did not travel alone. We all travelled on the journey together. As you look at the pictures, and remember the stories, allow a smile or a tear to come. Better yet, pick up a pen, write an e-mail, make a call. Reconnect with another fellow pilgrim, and be reminded once again that we do not journey down this road alone.

Grace and peace,

Dr. Al Truesdale, Interim President

Dear Members of the 2002 graduating class of Eastern Nazarene College:
On behalf of the ENC community I congratulate you for the accomplishments symbolized by your graduation.

Appropriately, the editorial staff of the 2002 Nautilus has chosen "The Road" for its theme. Immediately one remembers that many roads have been travelled to reach this point in your journey. Now they converge in graduation from ENC. In some ways the many roads all of you have travelled are similar. In other ways they are quite different. Some of you made your way to ENC as products of stable homes where supportive parents helped establish directions. Others of you have had to make it on your own with little or no family support.

Some of you have journeyed along roads marked by an early encounter with Christ that set the tone for your religious, social, mental, and moral development. Others of you remember struggles that threatened your personal, moral, social, and religious moorings. Some may still be sorting out directions in these areas.

The point you have now reached in your journey evidences fortitude and bold decisions. For whatever reasons, some who along with you began the journey toward college graduation did not continue. Many of your peers never even began the journey. But you did, and you have persevered. You have worked hard, sacrificed, learned, and matured. You have acquired a body of knowledge that either qualifies you for specific service or for subsequent study. In ways that only time will disclose, you have advanced along the road of wisdom and richness of faith. For all of this we give thanks, and we congratulate you.

Now the road will in numerous ways diverge again. You will pursue a wide range of professional goals. Whatever the divergent roads, all of us at ENC wish you success. But in the most important sense we hope there will be no divergence at all. We hope there will be one principle road for all of you, one formed by the values to which ENC is committed. We pray that the Christ from whom ENC receives its charter will be your governing pathfinder and compass. As you travel this road, it will increasingly abound in integrity of mind and character, and moral and mental courage. A vision of hope that you can share with those who lose their way in the darkness of hatred and fear will be yours.

Such a road will be the one "less travelled;" other roads will carry the masses. The less travelled road will follow the One who calls His followers to pursue the "straight way" and the "narrow gate."

The less travelled road is the one that faithfully represents ENC. This road tracks toward leadership; it leads to the nobility of service, humility and excellence of faith and purpose. It points toward what "can be" rather than toward "despair over what is." As you journey, you will see the footprints of other ENC alumni/ae who have gone before and who are willing to share accounts of their failures and successes. They will encourage you to walk the road and to leave a clear trail for those who follow. Most importantly, the God who has called you will show the way and will extend to you His strength.

THE ROAD TOGETHER

Senior Class Council: Kara White (Administrative Assistant), JoAnna Everson (Chaplain), Pamela Christie (President), Carolyn Marturano (Vice President), Jenny Nielson (Social Life).

We began our journey as fertile soil, waiting for the Gardener to plant seeds of growth in each one of our lives through His tools - our faculty and spiritual leaders. Over the past four years, we have become a beautiful garden, with each flower displaying a unique color and shape. As we embark on our next phase of life, I want to encourage every rose, marigold, and carnation; all the daises and sunflowers - do not let the weeds of the world entrap you and deprive you of the sunlight God has to offer. There will be shady spots, and many winters along the way, but do not lose sight of your faithful Gardener! He has placed many watering cans along the way in order to ensure your survival.

As a class, we have rejoiced and suffered together. We have many great memories of triumphs as well as the lingering pains of trials. Although the world is a very different place as it was when we first began our adventure, we can find hope in the unchanging love of Christ. He has an incredible plan for each one of us. People often say that in order to open a new door, we must close one behind us. However, I challenge you to leave the door ajar! If the Gardener plants you elsewhere, do not forget your roots. We are here to offer you the rays of sunlight as well as the petals of the past.

I consider it a true joy, my brothers and sisters, to have walked with you along this journey. It has been an honor to serve on your class council. I want to leave you with some words from Charles Swindoll ~ "It lies before you now. . . the untrod path, the unopened door, the mountain peak, the broad, blue heavens. I challenge you. Walk that path, open that door, climb the mountain heights. The sky's the limit. Let God be your guide and hang tough - follow your dreams with determination. And when you find yourself inundated with choices, don't be afraid. Be wise. Choose God's way - choose excellence. My prayers are with you."

First and foremost, it is God whom I thank for a blessed life with so many opportunities and privileges. I especially thank my wife for her unconditional support and love. I love and appreciate her very much. I thank you Garrett, my son, for putting up with me when I might have been impatient. I thank my two mothers and my youngest brother, Romane for their unwavering support. Finally, thanks Pastor Arthur for your constant support and encouragement. I'm most grateful for your friendship.

THE ROAD OF SERVICE

Twenty seniors were selected to the Who's Who Among American Universities and Colleges based on their commitment not only to academics, but also to the community of ENC through participation in a variety of activities. These students, through their commitment to lives of trusting where God is leading them and the road He has put them on, have provided service and leadership during their time at ENC.

"If the Lord delights in a man's way, He makes his steps firm; though he stumble, he will not fall, for the Lord holds him with His hand."

~Psalm 37:23-24

Jonathan Angell

"In his heart a man plans his course, but the Lord determines his steps." ~Proverbs 16:9

God brought me here for a reason. As I continue to look back at the journey I see nothing more than the faithfulness of God. Yes, we do plan a course for our lives, but as God's will unfolds, we see that His plan is so much better than ours. I never would have guessed the way anything in my life has turned out, but I know that I could not be happier with the way He has called me to go.

These four years have been challenging and humbling. I thank God for preparing me to follow His steps. I have learned that my own strength will fail me and my own knowledge will lead to confusion. I can do nothing more than trust God and be willing to let Him move in my life. God, thank you for showing me how weak I really am, but in my weakness You give strength.

God bless all those who have crossed my path and have become friends for life. Seek Him first and everything else will fall into place.

Heather L. Beckley

"Do all the good you can. By all the means you can. In all the ways you can. In all the places you can. At all the times you can. To all the people you can. As long as ever you can." ~John Wesley

This quote summarizes what I have learned while at ENC. Through my C.A.U.S.E. experiences, leadership roles, summer jobs, and classes, I have learned that what really matters is our relationships with people and how we treat each other, even those we do not know. The way of Jesus is the way of a servant, and that is what I strive to be.

I am so thankful for those God has used in my life: Mike Schutz: Thanks for being someone I can trust and turn to when I need help (and the best boss ever). Sarah: Thanks for being patient - I've learned a lot from you and cherish our friendship. Heather: Thanks for being a friend for all times. (And, by the way, this happens!) Jen: You have been the best roommate I could ever have; thanks for putting up with so much! Mike: We hated the homework, but our major brought us together as good friends, at least we got that much out of it! Jeremy, Jay, and the rest of the Guyana Team: Thank you for being a part of one of my best memories at ENC. It was fun! Our Worship Team: Thanks for your dedication and willingness to serve our community.

The challenge is to serve - wherever, whenever, whomever, and however. I accept the challenge in the spirit of Philippians 2:5-11. It only gets more interesting from here!

Jaime-Rose Carberry

Life passes by so quickly, it is nice to have a chance to reflect. Perhaps the most important lesson I've learned at ENC is that there's more to life than grades and GPA. I have learned to balance scholastics with friendships, singing, working, and perhaps most influential, love. My times at ENC have been decorated with pain and hurt, as well as laughter and joy. It will be joy that I will always remember as I learn to embrace those things in life which are bigger and better than any hurt. I have walked out from under my cloud (thanks J.L.). For the many emergency or "just because" trips to Quincy, I'd like to thank Mike Kelly for his enduring love and devotion to me. I am delighted Mike, that you will soon be my husband! Thank you for loving me and letting me love you! Thank you Mom and Dad Kelly. You both are such wonderful people; I'm so fortunate to have you in my life! JoJo, I love you bunches! Remember, I'm always proud of you! Mom and Dad, I praise God everyday for bringing our lives together. As I start my own marriage and family I look to you for guidance - you have given me the greatest foundation for both: love. Thank you! I hold tightly to my faith: "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." ~Philippians 4:13

Amanda Flowers

My years at Eastern Nazarene College have been full of wonderful experiences. As a girl from Oklahoma, the idea of Boston and all its many opportunities seemed so exciting. But in a very short time I realized that ENC was a true source of adventure and excitement for me. With God's leading and an overflowing van, my family and I set out for what proved to be the biggest adventure of my life. ENC has provided me with an exceptional Christian education and an amazing mentor, Dr. Hall. He has taught me an incredible amount of chemistry, but he has also taught me more about living out my Christian faith in the scientific world. But more important than the education I've gained, are the lifelong friendships I've made. God has blessed me with friends who have given me true JOY! I will love you always - TALS forever! God has also shown me the meaning of His perfect timing. God brought me to ENC and allowed me to meet and marry the man of my dreams. I am so grateful for every moment God has given us. I will always be thankful to God for the four amazing years He's given me at ENC. I would like to thank my family for allowing me to venture out and for trusting in God's perfect will and direction for my life. What a truly wonderful gift!

Jody Gardner

Looking back over the last five years everything is a blur. Some many incredible ups and not so incredible downs have been mixed into my journey and I can hardly put much into words. What I do know is that I am so thankful to all the people who took part in my journey with me. Those people who celebrated with me and those who were there for me during rough times. Thank you to my professors who showed me how to be a caring and loving teacher. To all my coaches and teammates, both on the court and on the field, thank you for all the incredible fun and memories that I will never forget. But most importantly, thank you for helping me to remember why I play sports, for His glory. Thank you to my family for all your support and patience along the way. Most importantly, I thank God for getting me this far and for being with me forever. As I leave here, I really don't know where I am heading, but I do know that I will never forget my time at ENC.

Sami Hanna

Over the past four years, I have experienced many good times (Superbowl XXXVI) and bad times (sophomore year 6-10). I have had tears of joy (A. Vinatieri's field goal) and tears of sadness (junior year 5-11). I have experienced close friends come (Tom Brady) and go (Drew Bledsoe). I have had the unique opportunity to learn from some of the most gifted and well-removed individuals in their fields (Bill Belichick and staff). At times, I have felt overwhelmed by the friendship and love surrounding me by my closest friends (1.2 million fans at the Patriot Parade). Thank you all (1999-2002 Patriots) for the memories you have given me, the friendships I have created, and the impressions you have left on my heart. As I leave ENC, my one dream for the future is that we can all come together and do this again sometime (another Superbowl championship). GO PATS!

Katie Elizabeth Hartig

"You don't know... like I know... what the Lord has done for me." ~Unknown

When the Gospel Choir sang these words during my freshmen year I identified with them because of all the ways that God had made His love and presence known in my first 18 years. However, I never could have imagined all that the Lord would do throughout my four years at ENC. He has taken me to new places, guided me to new ideas, and opened my heart to new people allowing me to cultivate a richer appreciation for life. These four years have truly been a journey of faith and I am so thankful for all that I have learned and the ways which I have grown. It has certainly not been easy, but it has been marked by true joy and by God's loving touch.

God used a variety of vessels to accomplish His work in me, including my family, friends, and the faculty and staff of ENC. My family, though far away, helped to sustain me through the most difficult times. Thank you Mom, Dad, Sarah, and Rachel for giving me strong roots, believing in me, and supporting me. My friends have been "peculiar treasures" that I hold deep within my heart. Thank you for the talks, walks, laughter, tears, and prayers. The professors in the Biology Department, several core professors, and those involved in Spiritual Development have been instrumental in helping me build confidence and ability, as well as a thoughtful faith. Thank you for taking so much of your time to guide and challenge me.

I am looking forward to the next chapter!

Matthew Henry

My four years at ENC are best summed up by the words of Prof. KP: "In a 100 years, all new people." Take that however you will.

Megan O'Donnell

"There is happiness in the little things
there is joy in passing pleasure
but friendships are from year to year,
the best with all life's treasures."

~Unknown

As I sit and think back on the past four years here at ENC, I must say the most meaningful experiences were those that helped create friendships which will last a lifetime. I can remember numerous nights where we would go to the Four's for our favorite buffalo chicken nachos. Each of those times bringing laughter and joy as we sat together and let loose from all the stresses we had experienced during the week; the laughter brought us together and helped bond us for a lifetime. I can remember nights sitting in the dorm talking until two or three in the morning; these late night chats were about where we had come from, struggles we were having, and where we were headed. Having that shoulder to lean on or the opportunity to be that shoulder helped bond us for a lifetime. The most meaningful experiences that I have had here at ENC were those little moments where the "best of life's treasures" was given to me, the treasure of friendship.

Cara L. Paulson

"Yet when I surveyed all that my hands had done and what I had toiled to achieve, everything was meaningless, a chasing after the wind; nothing was gained under the sun. . . For who knows what is good for man in life, during the few and meaningless days he passes through like a shadow? Who can tell him what will happen under the sun after he is gone? . . . No one can comprehend what goes on under the sun. Despite all his efforts to search it out, man cannot discover its meaning. Even if a wise man claims he knows, he cannot really comprehend it." ~Ecclesiastes 2:11; 6:12; 8:17

It is so amazing how much your life can change in four short years. Your major, your friends, your dreams, your hopes, and your beliefs can all change and grow. Looking back on my years at ENC, I see how much I have changed and how the things I thought were so important were really just a chasing after the wind. There is a larger picture, one which I cannot see or understand. What I do understand though, is the amazing love and grace of God. God has brought me to places that I never dreamed possible. He has given me friends which will last forever, and He has loved me unconditionally. Thank you to my family, friends, and the faculty and staff at ENC for all your support and love. Most importantly though, I thank God for giving my life meaning.

Catherine J. Reich

To be honest, ENC was not my top choice of colleges. Somehow though, God worked everything out and I decided to attend ENC. It was the best decision I could have ever made! I'm thankful for the friends I've made, the education I've received, and the lasting memories.

Kim Rose

Life is an amazing mystery. This is what I have learned from my experience at ENC. For example, when I first visited here four and a half years ago I wasn't sure I liked ENC at all! Now, here I am trying to find adequate words to explain how thankful I am for the past four years. There have been many friends (and a fiancé!) to meet, foreign countries to visit, lessons to learn, a greater appreciation for my parents to attain, a few all-nighters to pull, tears to cry, and smiles to share - it's been great! It was hard work at times, but so worth it. The more I learned, the more I realized how much there is that I could never fit into my head. The more I got to know someone, the more I saw that I could never fully understand another person. I was humbled to see that the closer I thought I got to God, the more I realized how far I was from Him. At the end of seeing all this, I felt a little uncomfortable, but yet so much alive. There's a surprising peace in just accepting that life is complex, mysterious and beautiful. Embracing the mystery of God's love and the paradox of life is where the incredible adventure of life really starts! I'm looking forward to what life has in store for me next, but now I am grateful for the classes, experiences, and MOST importantly, the people who have helped me learn so much over the past four mysteriously great years. I know I could never thank all of you enough.

Philippians 1:3-6

Stephanie Nicole Smith

Four years ago today I did not even know where I was going to college; I was confused and indecisive. Today, looking back at the wealth of positive experiences I have had here at ENC, I can rejoice at how God has intervened to guide me through my college years. Now, I stand at the threshold of another important transition in life; I take confidence in the knowledge that the same God who has been so faithful until now will continue to lead me. My deepest gratitude to the faculty and staff of ENC for their investment in my life.

Sarah Thibault

"Therefore, I urge you, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to God - this is your spiritual act of worship. Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind." ~Romans 12

I have been transformed during the last four years. I have been challenged, stretched, loved, and embraced. I am forever changed. I have experienced immense joy in seeing others come to know Christ and in coming to know Him more intimately in my own life. I have experienced great suffering in compassionately knowing the pain of the poor and the oppressed. I have experienced the love of Jesus in my friends, my chaplain, and my husband. I am forever changed because of my time at ENC, and I know that He will be faithful to continue to change me, that I might be more like Him.

"At the end of life we will not be judged by how many diplomas we have received, how much money we have made, how many great things we have done. We will be judged by 'I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was naked and you clothed me, I was homeless and you took me in.'" ~Mother Teresa

Tara L. Underhay

It seems like only yesterday that I made my first crazy commute to ENC. My two years here have passed much too quickly, but the many hours spent on trains and subways to come here have definitely paid off.

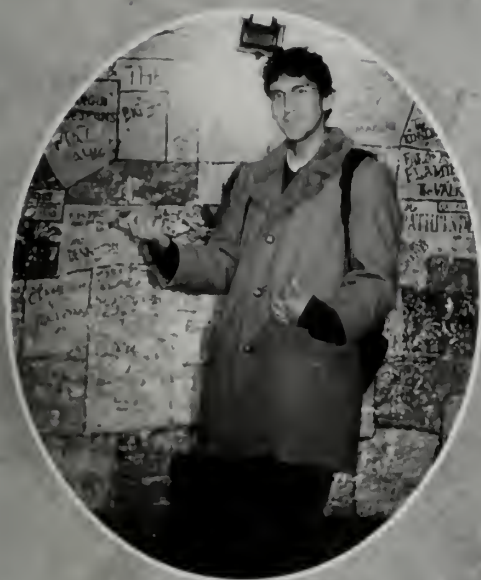

There are many people who have helped me grow, academically and spiritually. Thank you first to God for leading me here, and to Andrea Popa and the admissions staff. Without your efforts I would not have had these two wonderful years at ENC. I am thankful for caring professors who inspired, encouraged and challenged me along the way, and for smiling staff and students who made a quiet Canadian girl feel welcome.

Thank you to my amazing husband Matthew who has been with me all the way. I don't know how I could have done everything without your constant love, support and encouragement. Thanks for cheering me on and for believing in me even when I didn't. I love ya!

I don't know what the future holds, but I embrace it.

"I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength." ~Philippians 4:13

Alex Vilcapoma

I came to college thinking I wouldn't change. That was naive.

Have I changed? Yes. For the better, I think. Every experience, no matter how good or bad, has helped me grow. God has been faithful. Thanks to all who helped me get through it.

So now I leave college. Good-bye.

Tara Brooke Watkins

Mother Teresa said, "We ourselves feel that what we are doing is only a drop in the ocean. But the ocean would be less because of that missing drop." I am not leaving ENC as the same person who arrived from Oklahoma four years ago. I am leaving a woman of God who is strong only because of my experiences at ENC. It has not been easy, and while people may sympathize with the students in the midst of some trying times, I wonder: "Isn't that the point of college?" To shape us for the future. ENC has given me the ability to face difficulties with a certain heart that God will carry me through - as He has always done and will continue to do. To name the one thing I am most thankful for or will remember the most is like asking God to name His favorite child. Every person and every experience has had some impact on my life. Yet one lesson I've learned that will act as a foundation for my future is that there is never an excuse to not tell someone how special she is. It is not only nice, but it is vital to recognize the beauty and hard work of others because it helps us know how to live better lives and provides the support others need to know they are leading pretty good lives themselves. So I could not leave here without pointing out the women on this campus who have helped shape the woman I am leaving as. To you beautiful women: What you have done for me may seem like only a drop in the ocean. . . Cheryl Stone, Sara Mahoney, "Tanla" Miller, Cara Paulson, Anita Henck, Joyce Klittich, Tricia Smith, Fran Wright, Ronda Winderl, Eunice Ferreira, Ann Carroll, Amanda Marble, Linda Perez, Lindi Wells, Dr. KP, Roisin Knapp, Stacey Hull, Amanda Flowers, and Jan Lanham. Thank you all for making me a better person. To everyone: Never hesitate to find beauty in everyone - and yes, there is beauty in everyone.

Lindi Wells

I am a native of Nashville, Tennessee and have thoroughly enjoyed my years on the East Coast. I, being a Theatre major, have participated in many of the productions on the ENC stage. I also enjoy swing dancing, talking philosophy, and trash-picking for furniture. I would also like to thank my family, Society One, and first and foremost God (my best friend) for making these four years the most beautiful, challenging and enriching years of my life.

Kara White

Somewhere during my sophomore year here at ENC I came to the realization that God created man for the primary purpose of being in communion with Him and each other. Isn't that amazing? We are God's companions, created simply to love and be loved! This was an epiphany for me. People love community because we were built for it. I recently attended a Red Sox game with a huge group from ENC, and I wondered why everyone got such a thrill when thousands of fans coordinated in doing "the wave." I realized that it is part of our nature to desire a link with others. There is something special about being a part of a group of people, and I have learned to cherish such moments. I love talking to the little old lady at my church (the one that asks you to guess how old she is every week) and smiling at people as they walk by. This may sound simple and perhaps trite, but I believe these small acts have incredible value. They are not just "feel good" social ties, they are spiritual ties. In a society that emphasizes individuality, I am thankful to ENC for teaching me the value of a life lived in true community.

Nicole A. Wilson

God is faithful! Before I came to college someone said to me, "Do not fear tomorrow, for God is already there." This has been true throughout my four years here at ENC. He has been faithful to bring the people into my life who He knew I would need. He has been faithful to give me strength to do all that I have done. He has been faithful to mold me spiritually, daily shaping me into the person He wants me to be.

These have truly been an amazing four years, and I am so grateful for the friendships with which I have been blessed! I am grateful to each of my friends for their encouragement and honesty, even when I did not want to hear it. You will probably never know the extent to which God has used you in my life!

Mom and Dad, thank you for your encouragement, support and love. Aaron, I have really enjoyed having you here with me at ENC these two years. You guys are not only my family, but some of my best friends!

"Through thorny ways leads to a joyful end. Be still, my soul, your God will undertake, to guide the future as He has the past."

~Ginny Owens

Bigger Not Better Things

So far I've never seen
A day stand still.
I've never felt a faster force
Than falling years.

Well, time flies and so must I
Through my life,
But to move on will always mean
To leave someone behind.

I thank my God
Every time

I think through the years and remember you.

These hands that shook
Your hands to greet
Will soon be waving bye.

All because I'm
I'm moving on
To bigger, not better things

They say that looking back
Gives perfect sight
But all I see are the places where
I didn't even try,
And things I should have done
Had I the time.
But I will turn and face the road
That God has called mine.

Scared of the future and where I've been
I walk through the door that calls me in.

~J. Michael Lyle

Jr./Sr. Chapel

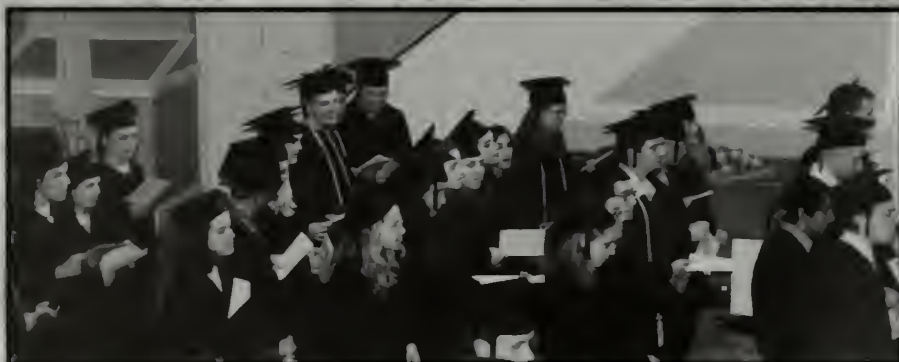

Students gathered into the Wollaston Church of the Nazarene on May 3, 2002 for Jr./Sr. Chapel. Classes received their charges from class presidents, the seniors sung their class song for the first time, and Jan Lanham offered the seniors a few words of wisdom.

Jan Lanham addresses the Senior Class.

Members of the Senior Class turn to sing the class song to the rest of the ENC community.

"The journey you have been on these past four years has had its twists and turns. . . There have been curves in the road where you have not been able to clearly see the path ahead, but I trust that you have discovered that God has provided enough light for the next step."

~Jan Lanham

Senior Retreat

The Class of 2002 had one last weekend getaway together before they graduated. This year's trip whisked over half of the Senior Class off to Cape Cod for beach fun, mini-golf, and pizza.

Juniors

Junior Class Council: Jamie Wilson (Chaplain), Heather Bjornsen (Social Life), Sara Mahoney (President), Jacqueline Ellwood (Administrative Assistant), Amber Richardson (Vice President).

You come back to the now familiar places, see the old familiar faces, and think, 'My word! I'm halfway done.' It's most likely a distressing thought. You either can't believe you still have two years left, or can't accept that it's almost over!

Either way you look at it, the year's over and the end is that much closer. It's crazy. We have one more go at it before moving on to the rest of our lives, to careers, families, and travels. But while we're here, we are going to make the best of it.

Whether it was hiking up Mount Major at the Rec. Life Retreat, giving your best performance on stage, volunteering at Friends of the Homeless, or attending the Junior/Senior Banquet, I hope everyone found a way to make the most of their year. I hope the year to come holds even more opportunity for fun, for growth, and most importantly, for us to be unmistakably us.

Class 2004

Sophomores

Sophomore Class Council: Denise Mingledörff (Chaplain), Vanessa Ayersman (Social Life), Jennifer Sifferd (Administrative Assistant), Jon Lanham (Vice President), Jason McPherson (President).

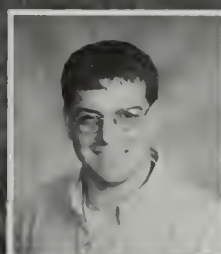

The freshmen year's theme was a little more simple. . . New beginnings, new friends, new environment, etc. After a tiring first year, we were ready for the summer break. Now as sophomores, there is a different theme for our lives, perhaps it could be described as stepping up to the plate. Many challenges and opportunities are staring us straight in the eyes, ready to deliver a fastball. Suddenly, we find ourselves faced with many decisions and questions. Do I go after the pitch and give it everything I've got? Am I going to let this pitch go by? Am I going to ignore what the pitcher is offering me all together? The bat is in our hands and those are our feet in the batter's box. Eyes are on us now to take control and make a difference in our lives, ENC, and the great commission for which we have been all called.

Freshmen

fresh(man noun— a beginner; a novice; a person who is new at something

That's what Webster says we are – and he is right. New to all of the meetings and events from the first week of school. New to the classes and the idea of independence (at least partially). New to doing our own laundry (even though mom gave me a list of what to wash when and how to wash it). All of a sudden, the little things became a hassle – waking up to an alarm instead of mom singing the "Good Morning Song," tossing Pop Tarts into the microwave instead of wolfing down bacon and eggs, knowing that you are paying for school and should be motivated to go to class.

Being one of the largest classes to enter ENC recently, we also had the most energy. It has been said that the freshmen class always brings the most spiritual energy with them. We did. The year was filled with cotton candy, raking leaves for Jesus, and amazing class chapels.

"Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in life, in love, in faith, and in purity. Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of Scripture, to preaching and to teaching. Do not neglect your gift, which was given you through a prophetic message when the body of elders laid their hands on you" (1 Timothy 4:12-14). The freshmen class took Paul's challenge to young Timothy as our own, and have spent a year serving the community (and not just the ENC one) in the name of Christ. As the snow melts and nature blossoms again, we look forward to future years and the good times to be had.

Baby, let the good times roll!!!!

Loriann Langille makes her way down the Student Center stairs.

Harbor Cruise

Angela Busch and Steve Genica sing their love to each other.

Even though the weather was unusually cold, a large group of ENC students braved the autumn chill for this year's Harbor Cruise. This year SGA chose a new company and many students enjoyed the change. The highlight of the evening were the crazy karaoke performances from various ENC students. Overall, the evening was a great success and didn't suffer at all from being delayed.

Kylie Streams, Roisui Kuapp, Tanya Miller, Keri Miller, and Maria Thomas pose their slamin' style!

Jan Burges, Alayna Henck, Christine Knapp, and Marianne Moseley sing a little ditty.

Alex Vilcapoma stops to smile with his new freind.

Jeremy D. Scott and Meghan Parker as cute as always.

Kara White, JoAnna Everson, Aaron Martin, and Amber Wheeler try their hardest to get their point across.

Laura Mosedale, Jaime Govoni, and Melody Santor pose for their glamour shots!

STREET FAIR

It wasn't too hot and it wasn't too cold for this year's annual Homecoming Street Fair. Wendell Avenue brought councils, clubs and organizations out to raise money to support their councils by selling items such as hotdogs, pretzels and hamburgers.

Eric Murphy, Tami Newcomer, and Jendy Duulop cook up a storm.

JoAnna Everson and Andrew Hausen taste test each hotdog.

Jen Flewelling, Doug Gerber, and Christy Fairbairn represent A Cappella at the Street Fair.

Jeremy D. Scott has his final revenge on his brother, Jeff. Too bad Jeff did too!

Alison Chaffee and Imani Sennariue are the pretzel queens of the Street Fair.

Melissa Lowell proudly displays hamburger buns awaiting their union with the freshly cooked hamburgers.

Homecoming Court

The 2001 Homecoming Court.

"Dreaming of Tonight" was not only the theme but also the atmosphere of Homecoming, 2001. Decorations and music filled Cove Auditorium as the Court entered. A special slide show gave the audience new insight into the lives of the Court. Jon Austin, Mike Caufield, Chris Moesel and Tim Semchenko serenaded the audience with an A Cappella version of "Bridge Over Troubled Water." Last year's king and queen, Andy Blish and Kim Tharp, shared a song about friendship and love before announcing this year's king and queen, Alex Vilcapoma and Tanya Miller.

Coronation: "Dreaming of Tonight"

A night to remember . . . a night I'll never forget. The night I realized that my peers, all the friends I have made over the years, believed in me. There is no greater feeling in all the world than to know that you are loved and supported. While I've always felt accepted and loved by God and my family. . . I never felt so accepted by my peers than on that special night in October, 2001. Thank you ENC for taking the time to accept, support, challenge, and stretch me. I'll never forget how God has used each moment I spent here at ENC to bless me and to mold me into the woman of God He has called me to be. To be quite honest, I never thought that I would be crowned Homecoming Queen. Just being nominated for the Homecoming Court was a surprise in itself. I guess what I really want to say is thank you, and thanks for having faith in me.

In His Service,
Tanya N. Miller

The 2001 Homecoming Queen and King,
Tanya Miller and Alex Vilcapoma.

It was an honor to be nominated King, but in reality we are all kings and queens. In the years I have been at ENC, I have met so many beautiful people. People that I will never forget, for I have learned so much from them. The conversations, jokes, arguments, hellos, and good-byes have opened my eyes to how precious life can be and how important relationships are.

I don't know where I'm going from here, but I do know that some of the best memories of my life will have come from being a student at ENC. My prayer and hope is that ENC will continue to be a place where people can be themselves and appreciated for who they are.

Much love to everyone and God bless
Juan Alexis Vilcapoma Medina

MIDNIGHT MADNESS

Midnight Madness was the first time for the students of ENC to see both the Men's and Women's Basketball Teams on the court. It was also a great time of fun for the students. There was pizza, Two Ball Contest, a Dunk Contest, many other games, and of course there were prizes!

Carson Wolf, Chris Russell, and Brian Paolini proudly show off their manly prizes.

Haunted Hayride

This year students travelled in a big white ENC van to a scary tree farm in Rhode Island. After getting lost three times they finally arrived - 10 minutes late! The evening was filled with screams, laughter, racing hearts, and jumpy girls. After riding around a huge farm for an hour, the scary times were over and the fun time began. Everyone crowded around a little fire and roasted marshmallows, all the while laughing and shivering.

Kara White and Amber Wheeler have some laughs while trying to keep warm.

Bryan Olds and Amber Wheeler high-five Mr. Blueberry.

Big Sister / Little Sister Party

This year's party was a jungle theme, complete with fish and birds hanging all over Spange Parlor and jungle themed music playing in the background. The night had many fun and memorable moments. There were fun games played, including a trivia game about jungle topics ranging from Disney movies to songs. There was also enjoyable entertainment with Big Sisters and Little Sisters competing in a song game. Overall, the night was a huge success and enjoyed by all.

Katie Hartig and Jessica Weatherbee show off their teddy bears.

Alayna Henck, Kara Reiman, Shaundelle Mitchell, and Keri Miller gather as the AWS Council to lead the party.

Clairees Mesel and Amanda Dix are really excited about their matching safari gear.

Natalé Chew, Melody Santor, and Abigail Curtis take over the couch at the party.

Tabatha Forrest and Erica Silva spend some time getting to know each other.

Songs for a New World

The ensemble shows the audience know there's a "New World."

For the fall musical this year, the Communication Arts Department chose to present a new and different production. Songs for a New World is a musical-revue-style show of composer Jason Robert Brown's introspective songs. They were song monologues of every walk of life with which anyone could identify. As an extra treat, the cast had the significant opportunity to meet and work with the Tony Award-Winning Composer. Brown drove down from New York City for the day to present a workshop and offer comments about the production. Eunice Ferreira directed the musical and ENC alum and Boston performer José Delgado acted as musical director. Overall, the cast felt it was a beneficial experience.

Tara Brooke Watkins sings "Surabaya Santa."

Jason Blake, Tim Semchenko, and the ensemble let each other know that "The River Won't Flow."

It's all about the "Stars and the Moon" for Heather Haunon.

Tim Semchenko's "World Was Dancing" with Sara Mahoney.

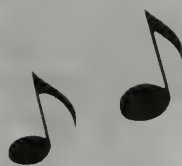

Suzette Whetstone sings Mary's "Christmas Lullaby."

Jason Blake plays a soldier who is "Flying Home."

Let's Make a Deal

This was an evening filled with laughter and profit. All donations given to the Sophomore Class were passed onto Nazarene Compassionate Ministries to help the victims of September 11, 2001. The audience also had the chance to make some money of their own by performing such stunts as shooting basketballs from obnoxious distances, dancing crazy dances, and dressing as wacky as possible. Some prizes given were t-tokens, a map of Boston, Dunkin' Donuts' gift certificates, and cold hard cash.

Officer Kylie Streams picks her prize while Vanessa Ayersman, Jen Sifferd, and Dave Capozzi look on.

Rec-Life Retreat

Jay Govoni helps his little sister Jaime Govoni through the jungle gym.

Columbus Day Weekend provided a time for 17 students and chaperones Jeff and Joy Scott to get away on the Rec-Life Retreat to Alton Bay, NH. Those on the retreat were able to participate in wiffleball, canoeing, hiking, foosball, Ping-Pong, yahtzee, devotions, softball, and playground games, just to name a few. The weather turned out to be beautiful and all those who went had a great time with each other. A huge thanks to Jeff and Joy Scott and the Alton Bay Christian Conference Center staff for making this the best weekend of our young adult lives.

3-on-3 Basketball

Mariella DaSilva, Jenn Manchester, and Katie Lumley play defense as Cherissa Sharpe and Jessica Weatherbee fight for the ball.

The 3-on-3 Basketball Tournament was played both indoors and outdoors. Seven guy's teams played with the eventual champions being Brandon Frost, Dan Zimmerman, and Larry Kearney. Five girl's teams played with the winners being Katie Reich, Melissa Kenrick, and Ally Braunius.

Dan Zimmerman, Brandon Frost, Larry Kearney, and Mark Spillane work hard to win the game.

PowderPuff Flag Football

PowderPuff Flag Football emerged into a tournament event in 2001. Five teams, each with 10-11 girls, competed against each other throughout the month of November. Each team had male coaches who provided instruction and support. The tournament was fun for both the players and the fans that came out to watch. The PowderPuff season culminated with a game against Gordon College.

FLAG FOOTBALL

The 2001 Flag Football Tournament was highly competitive. Five teams squared off with each other throughout October and November. Sami Hanna's Team came out on top after a very close SuperBowl win against Nick Mucci's Team. The championship team and some other players then had the chance to play against Gordon College. ENC won 25-14 thanks in large part to Dave Lindsay and John Morgan. An All-Star Game was also included in this exciting football season.

The Gong Show

Peter Van Amburg, Ramon Grant, Dave Ardrey, and Alex Vilcapoma show that "geeks" can sing Rock n' Roll too.

A multitude of hidden talent came out to participate in "The Gong Show." There were some serious contestants who sang and played from their hearts. However, in keeping with the traditional ENC silliness, there were many contestants who went up for the sole hope of receiving a laugh. The funniest moment being Aaron McCabe jumping on the judges' table after being gonged three times.

Gerson Semedo and Mark Spillane dress accordingly to host the show.

THE WEAKEST LINK

The Senior Class hosted this event based on the popular game show, "The Weakest Link." Tara Brooke Watkins hosted this event and took on the role of the sarcastic TV host, Anne. The last round brought Jeremy D. Scott head-to-head with Dr. Anita Henck. At the end of the night, Jeremy D. Scott was named the champion of ENC's, "The Weakest Link."

Alayna Henck, Bill Hayes, and Lindi Wells are serious about this competition.

SGA Christmas Dinner

The SGA worked very hard this year to have a wonderful, cozy Christmas Dinner in the cafeteria. The lights were low, the cafeteria was decorated in a winter wonderland fashion, and different student groups created ornaments for the SGA Christmas tree. These ornaments included Rudolph's nose, a chemical bottle, wrapped Christmas gifts, and even socks. The grand prize went to Barnabas Ministry for a jeweled heart. The evening continued with Christmas songs, carol trivia, and feelings of peace and joy.

Chris Russell really enjoys his Christmas dinner.

Patricia Barthelemy, Stephanie Pina, and Jessica Dos Santos are excited that the Christmas season has finally arrived.

Angela Marciano works hard to make the Christmas Banquet enjoyable for every student.

Santa, Mike Magrans, and Heather Beckley enjoy Christmas dinner together.

Kristen Riveria has mysteriously grown a pair of antlers.

Drew Hartsock, Andrew Porter, Sami Hanna, EJ Lewis, and Eli Smith point out who is the best among them.

SGA Christmas Bazaar

If someone were looking for last minute Christmas gifts they had no further to look than the Student Center lobby. Different student groups sold items to the ENC community to try to raise money. People could purchase Thomas Kinkadee prints from the Junior Class, Rudolphs made of candy canes from the Commuter Council, hot chocolate packets from Women's Lacrosse, and candy-grams from the Sophomore Class. The day was a great success with a wonderful feeling of the Christmas spirit.

Devon Clossen and Lisa Albano sell hot chocolate, candy, and candy canes to help support Women's Lacrosse.

Alayna Henck is in the cheerful holiday spirit of giving.

Christina Duncan helps to raise money for the Commuter Council.

Denise Mingledorff, Vanessa Ayersman, and Jon Lanham raise money for the Sophomore Class by selling candy-grains.

SGA Christmas Coffeehouse

The SGA Christmas Coffeehouse brought together various talents such as singing, playing musical instruments, and story-telling. Coffeehouse guests enjoyed Christmas goodies and the company of their ENC friends as seasonal joy filled the Colonel's Coffeehouse.

Alex Vilcapoma strums his guitar in the Christmas spirit.

To put the audience in the Christmas spirit, Stefanie DeLeo reads "Twas the Night Before Christmas."

Melissa Lowell reads the audience a Christmas story.

J-Term Basketball

Sara McGhee, Amber Tharp, Carrie Murphy, and Joseph Azevedo watch a J-Term Basketball game.

The 2002 J-Term Basketball season was a season of change. More teams competed, game statistics were kept, and play extended into the spring semester. There were 11 guy's teams and four girl's teams competing against each other. Erin Leppanen's Team won the girl's division after a very exciting finals game against Katie Reich's Team. The faculty and staff team showed that age is not a factor as they won the men's division by beating John Cogan's Team. A fun time was had by players and faithful fans who came out to watch each night.

Amber Wheeler anticipates her clean shot.

Rival female teams pray before their big game.

Team members look on as Jeremy D. Scott shoots and Nathan Paddock blocks his shot.

Dan Gonzalo leaves the competition in the dust.

The Dating Game

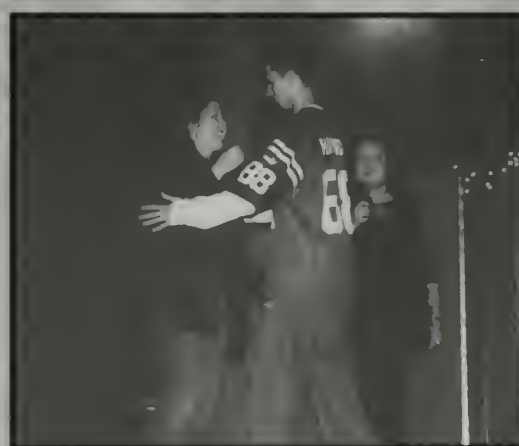

AWS planned this year's ENC version of "The Dating Game." One of the highlights of the evening was when Melissa Lowell let us in on her secret to getting boys: stalking. With that answer, she won a date with Jon Pastorious. A new twist was added this year by randomly drawing audience members to be participants. Matched up that night were, Jon Austin winning a date with Jalaine Bozarth, Jonathan Johnson winning an evening with Lindi Wells, and Ashley Warren winning the heart of Drew Hartsock.

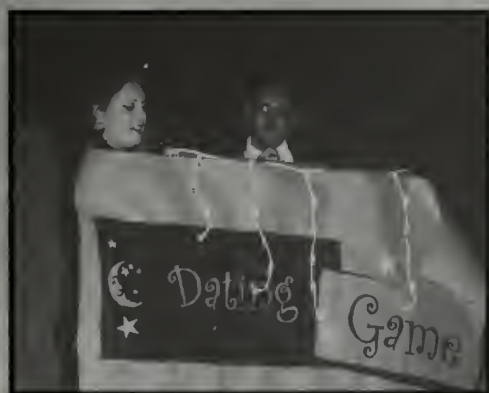

Kylie Streams tries to pair up Jalaine Bozarth and Wes Nease.

Roisin Knapp, Melissa Lowell, and Loriann Langille try to win a date.

Lindi Wells greets runner-up Mark Spillane.

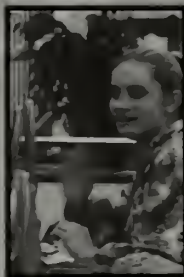

Kylie Streams and Alex Vilcapoma host "The Dating Game."

Jonathan Johnson, Zach Windert, and Mark Spillane answer questions in the hopes that the girl will pick them.

OLD PEOPLE BINGO

The Social Life Council presented ENC students with a new and different activity this year, Old People Bingo. ENC students dressed up and headed to the cafeteria to play Bingo, old people style. The event had quite a few participants who enjoyed the fellowship, fun and prizes.

Lisa Albano listens to the number called.

Ryan and Amanda Flowers call the Bingo numbers.

Bingo players check to see if their card has the number that was just called.

Roisin Knapp has the old lady walk down.

Tanya Miller concentrates hard.

Jeremy D. Scott shouts out that he has Bingo, while other players show their amazement.

The Importance of Being Earnest

Oscar Wilde's hilarious comedy, "The Importance of Being Earnest," was performed as the spring show this year. Senior Tara Brooke Watkins, undertook the direction of the challenging piece which required strict dialect training (done by Dr. Ronda Winderl) and demanding rehearsals everyday. The cast consisted of nine dedicated students ranging from freshmen to seniors. Freshmen Dan Messier and Doug Gerber (Jack and Algernon) take on the pretense of Ernest in order to woo senior Lindi Wells and junior Amber Richardson (Gwendolyn and Cecily) earnestly without being earnest Ernests. The British language, the farcical timing, and the ubiquitous theme that we should be true to who we are in all circumstances came through beautifully in each of the packed-out performances. Perhaps the best element, according to the production members, was the sense of community and belonging that emerged through the run of the show. Altogether, this production was one that brought a laugh, a lesson, and a little bit of life to the campus.

The cast, Dan Messier, Colin Martin, Dan Fish, Sarah Thompson, Crystal Whitney, Allison Ross, Lindi Wells, Amber Richardson, and Doug Gerber, show the true colors of their characters.

Doug Gerber and Amber Richardson fall in love as Cecily confesses that she loves how Algernon's hair curls.

Dan Messier plays Jack who works to butter up the mother, Allison Ross, of the woman he wants to marry.

Amber Richardson and Lindi Wells play Cecily and Gwendolyn who are best friends until they realize they're engaged to the same man.

STAR SEARCH ENC

Nathan Houle, Eli Smith, and Matthew Henry reveal themselves to be some of the most talented men on campus.

This year's Star Search ENC was full of laughter and excitement. The acts ranged from well-written songs to interpretive poems. Hosting the evening were Chad Restrict and Ryan Scott. The search ended with Marco Debarros and Gerson Semedo stealing the hearts of the judges with their "from the heart" rhymes.

Jay McPherson's song about his teammates was so funny he cracked himself up!

Loriann Langille and Chrissa Vallese sing a song about Ramen Noodles.

Ryan Scott and Chad Restrict were the hosts of the evening.

Dan Gonzalo, Frank Garland, and Andy Tetrault take on the role of the lead singers from the Dave Mathew's Band.

Gerson Semedo won Star Search ENC with his rap performance.

Neil Eash exits the stage after the completion of his crowd pleasing song.

C.A.U.S.E.

This year's C.A.U.S.E. trip was a blessing in many ways. With an incredibly diverse team and many talents the team headed out to serve the Lord in Guyana. While there they were able to lead worship and worship with the people in music, work and life-style. Their mornings were spent building and cleaning the Nazarene Campground, while afternoons were full of fun with the kids at Vacation Bible School. In the evenings they were able to spend some time getting to know the Guyanese folk.

Many lessons were learned, but the main one was servanthood. The scripture for the entire trip was Philippians 2:5-11, where Paul describes Jesus as a servant. They went to serve and will never again be the same because of their time there.

"Skipping" is a favorite past time for the children.

Julie Erb and Keri Miller make friends with a local singer.

The children thank Jeremy D. Scott for the Bibles they received from the C.A.U.S.E. team.

The mode of transportation was a speedboat, full of 22 plus people each trip.

Once back in Boston the team collapses on their luggage.

INDOOR SOCCER

Beginning April 2 and continuing until April 24, the Indoor Soccer Tournament was an enormous success. With a total of six men's teams and three ladies' teams, many student athletes were able to participate in this event. Winning the Men's Tournament was Carson Wolf's Team and the ladies' champions were Kristen Rivera's Team. Twenty-eight games were played during the tournament attracting many spectators.

The pressure is on as the ball heads for the goal.

John Penny concentrates on his next move.

Jimmy Gardner blows by Andy Tetrault on his way to the goal.

Mike Lyle guides the ball past the opposing team and down the field.

Jon Austin goes for the goal, while his opponents play hard defense.

Ping-Pong Tournament

Ping-pong, ping-pong, ping-pong. . . this is the sound you would have heard if you had walked into the multipurpose room of the gym during the Ping-Pong Tournament. The doubles ping-pong match was dominated by ping-pong pros Robert Benjamin and David Bullon, while Chris Greco's ping-pong skills allowed him to clinch the win in the singles ping-pong event. Twenty ping-pong players turned out to participate in the Ping-Pong Tournament. Yet another competitive, successful event organized by our very own Jay Govoni, aka The Poni.

Jay and Jaime Govoni bond during their doubles' match.

Jon Austin gets ready to receive a serve.

Addison Cooper and Jonathan Hale smile through their doubles' game.

Robert Benjamin, David Bullon, and Jonathan Pastorius enjoy their game.

Jesse Ciras watches Jonathan Pastorius and Chris Greco's intense ping-pong match.

Easter Eggstravaganza

Will Sarog accidentally spills his bag of eggs.

A mad dash, hundreds of colored eggs, lots of candy, prizes, friends, and fun were all part of this year's Easter Eggstravaganza. Students looked forward to this special event as a way to recapture their youthful days of Easter Egg hunting.

Katie Lumley is really excited about her finds.

Nathan Paddock, Michael Golden, and David Nelson sort through their eggcellent finds.

Amber Wheeler opens her egg to see if she got anything good.

Wendy Kingsley and Susie Kleinfield search for more eggs.

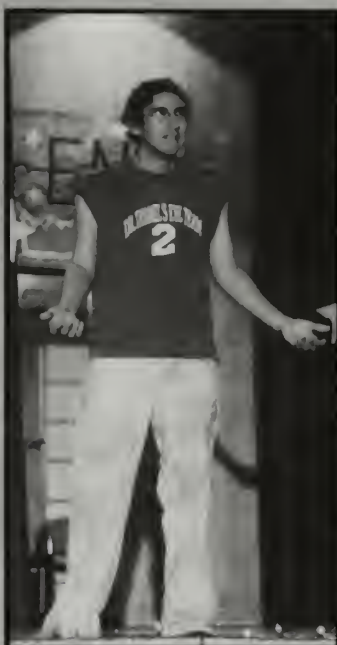

Vanessa Simoneau and Stephanie Smith look through their eggs to see what they got.

MIR. ENC

The end of April rolled around and so did ENC's male version of the "Miss America" Pageant. Men in swimsuits and formal wear graced the stage sporting their manly talent and charming good looks. Dan Zimmerman gained the crowds and judges' favoritism as he serenaded the audience, winning the title of "Mr. ENC."

Kylie Streams and Keri Miller help Bryan Olds out with his talent.

Nick Mucci tries to talk his way to the title of "Mr. ENC."

Jimmy Gardner gives a new definition to interpretive dance.

Alex Vilcapoma and Andrew Hansen dual it out for the title of "Mr. ENC."

MISS MUNRO

Blast From the Past

The junior and senior women of ENC came out for their own version of a stereotypical beauty pageant. With hilarious performances by participants including Melissa Lowell, Kylie Streams, Angelique Scarpa, and Vanessa Simoneau the event was highly entertaining. Last year's Miss Munro, Katie Hartig, passed the crown down to this year's winner, Lindi Wells. As always Miss Munro was a hit among the women of ENC.

Lindi Wells wins the title of Miss Munro.

Kylie Streams impersonates a "Bed-Rock" beauty.

Lindi Wells poses in her "Miss Prehistory" outfit.

Angelique Scarpa and Kylie Streams get a bit wild!

Vanessa Simoneau proudly displays a portrait of her role model.

Mother/Daughter Weekend

"For All Your Love"

Jenni Manchester and her mom spend some quality time at the scrapbooking party.

This year's Mother/Daughter Weekend was especially well planned and truly enjoyed by all. The weekend was filled with a great mix of memories and looks to the future. The weekend started on Friday when the mothers and daughters took time to meet and greet in Spange Parlor. Then the pair was able to scrapbook their memories. Saturday started with mother/daughter pairs travelling to Marché. The rest of the afternoon was left to spend free time in Boston. That evening there dinner, a Mary Kay Party, the Gospel Choir Concert, and a special viewing of "The Wedding Planner." Sunday mothers and daughters went to the daughter's church and met back in Munro Parlor for lunch. At the conclusion, Amanda passed out a beautiful vase with a picture for the mothers and a key chain for the daughters. It was a wonderful parting gift.

Becky Hunt and her mom take a break from the festivities to get their picture taken.

Heather Reilly's mom decides where the next picture will go.

Rayann Duquette and her mom show how similar they really are.

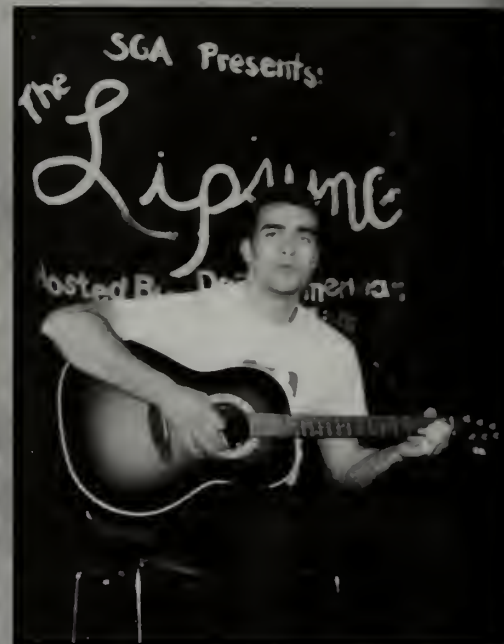

Lip Sync

Songs filled the Student Center Auditorium as one of the final events of the year began. Hosts Dan Zimmerman and Adrian Mills gave the audience a few laughs and a great time.

Roisin Knapp and Kylie Streams are super lip at the Lip Sync.

Neil Eash puts some real feeling into his song.

Keri Miller welcomes everyone to the Lip Sync.

Kylie Streams and Roisin Knapp are all about Milli Vanilli.

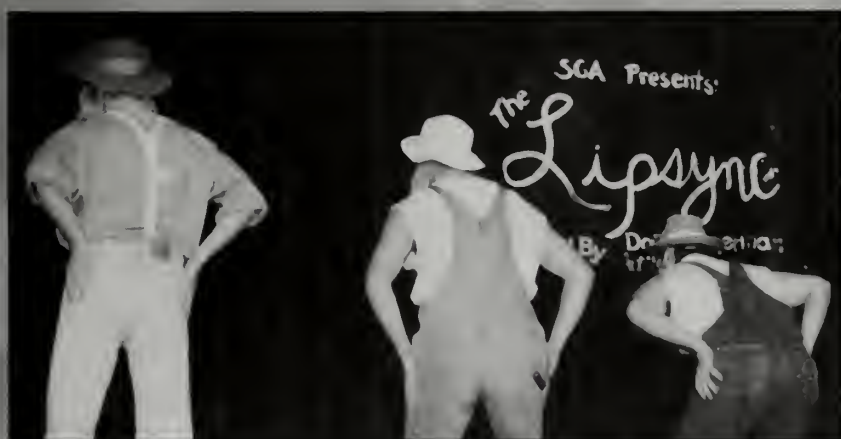

Drew Hartsock, Chris Greco, and Nicole DeAngelo judge the Lip Sync.

Loriann Langille breaks it down.

Jamie Wilson, Jeff Scott, and Nick Mucci help the audience relive "Brother Where Art Thou."

Jamie Wilson, Jeff Scott, and Nick Mucci are still singing.

Mike Alvaro is passionate about his song.

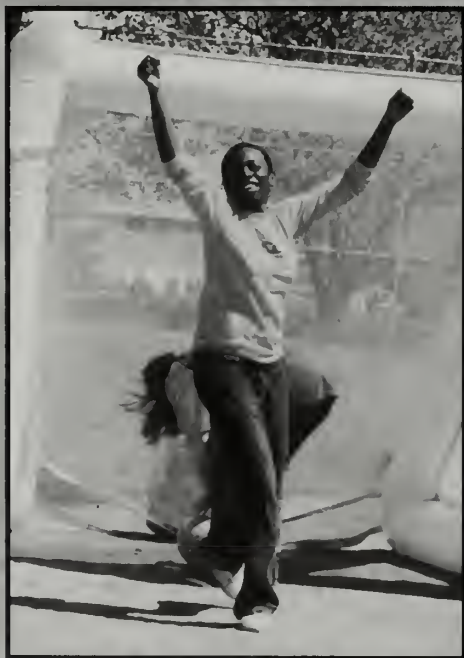

Spring Fever

Lindi Wells can reach the stars while jumping on the bouncy giraffe.

Spring Fever this year was a great success! SGA really worked hard to put together a great field day! Bradley field was covered with people and fun activities. This year we saw a return of a caricature artist (who was well worth the wait!), a bouncy giraffe, and the Class of 2004 selling some quality grilled food. Another returning event was one-pitch softball, which was fun with just enough competition. Each team consisted of combined floors of girls and guys.

This year there was a new addition of the Mountain Dew Hummer which was there all day passing out Code Red and regular Mountain Dew. A big suggestion for the day was not to mix Mountain Dew and the bouncy giraffe! There was also continuous music flowing from our favorite DJs, Keri Miller and Ryan Scott. Overall, the weekend was a great - and much needed - break before the last week of classes and finals.

Marly Daniel is victorious.

Summer Ministries

Four more great teams headed out this summer to use their talents for God. The 18 individuals performed in various churches and camps telling the great news of Jesus Christ.

Angela Scott, Aaron Wilson, Jay McPherson, and Keri Miller make up the Summer Ministry Team, "Fully Surrendered."

Making up the Summer Ministry Team, "One Hope" are Andy Fey, Suzette Whetstone, Jordan LaGraft, Meghan Parker, and Jon Austin.

Making up the Summer Ministry Team, "Poured Out" are Jenny Nielson, Andrew Porter, Denise Mingledorff, and Terrence Green.

Dan Fish, Layne Restrict, Angela Carr, Jillian Ellwood, and Andrew Nase make up the Summer Ministry Team, "Scarlet Cord."

THE ROAD OF OPPORTUNITIES

"Do the best you can, no matter how insignificant it may seem at the time. While you may be a lowly foot soldier. . . no one knows more about solving a problem than the person at the bottom."

Student Government Association

Executive SGA

Advisor Brad Thorne takes time to guide the Executive SGA Council Mike Lyle, Jeremy D. Scott, Jay Govoni, Tanya Miller, Amanda Flowers, and Bryan Olds.

The Student Government Association exists for the students and serves many purposes. One of our goals this year was to promote and encourage community on campus through interaction between students, faculty and staff; community prayer; community worship; and most importantly a more intimate and closer relationship with Jesus Christ. SGA had a very productive year and we hope that many memories were created. We want to thank everyone who participated in SGA events, served on the SGA, and especially those who helped out when they did not have to. It was a wonderful time, and we consider it an honor and a privilege to have represented you.

Publications' Board

Serving on this year's Publications' Board are Dr. Anita Henck, Cara L. Paulson, Carson Wolf, Mike Lyle, Jarrod Spalding, Patricia Smith, Alex Vilcapoma, Lindi Wells, and Tara Brooke Watkins.

This year, the Publications' Board has been a demanding but diligent group of leaders. We have met regularly once a month, and sometimes more, throughout the year to review the newspaper and yearbook. Everyone on the board has been a valuable asset in perspective and contribution. We only hope we have done a job God would be proud of.

Commuter Council

Aquiles Gomes, Arwyn Pierce, Tara Underhay, Christina Duncan, and Stephen Wolf represent commuter students' interests and address the needs of the off-campus members of the student body.

The Commuter Council is a group of commuters who desire to represent all the commuters and help to plan events. The Commuter Council sponsors events which bring commuters closer to each other and closer to the ENC community as a whole. Even though this is only the second year of the Commuter Council, it has been a great year; we have held many events to make commuters feel they are part of the community.

Social Life

Mike Magrans, Amanda Flowers, Jenny Nielson, Heather Bjornsen, Janelle White, Vanessa Ayersman, Keri Miller, and Katie Pruett provide fun and fellowship through the organization of numerous social activities on campus.

Social Life is composed of two groups: the council and the committee. The Social Life Council consists of the elected Social Life Representatives from each class council. The Social Life Committee consists of students who are interested in helping out and getting involved with Social Life. Social Life meets once a week to plan events for the students. It is our mission to find activities that are new and exciting that bring the student body together. We work hard to find events which will entertain a wide diversity of interests on campus. We hope to provide many opportunities for you to have fun and fellowship with friends. A good social life is essential; these are some of the best and most important years of your life.

AWS

Alayna Henck, Shaundelle Mitchell, Kara Reiman, and Keri Miller support the female student body through the planning of women's activities and fellowships throughout the year.

The focus of AWS this year was to branch out from what is typically done. We desired to do more than just what was required of us, so we planned more fun activities to keep the women of ENC in fellowship with each other. We started the year off with the Big Sister/Little Sister party and also held a dress sale during the first semester. We continued holding monthly Ladies Fellowships to get to know our amazing female faculty and staff members. We also sponsored the Dating Game and, along with AMS, sponsored a competition between the men and women.

AMS

This year, the AMS Council was rather late in being filled. Though we did not have a Vice President at all or meetings, we did organize the AMS chapel. Thanks to Dr. Fish and the Late Nite band, Intersect 60, more than 50 men gathered to hear that a relationship with God will change us. As a part of the ENC community, we encouraged floor community by taking part on our own floors and in talking to floor chaplains. This year has been proof that God acts even when we don't feel His movement. Peace and God Bless!

Student Ministries

Ministry Leaders

Through various ministry opportunities this year, students have been given the chance to respond to both the needs of ENC and the greater community. We have called upon the Lord. . . He has heard our voice. . . and has sustained us through some tough times. (Psalm 55) Our aim this year as Student Ministry Leaders has been to become effective servant leaders. God has given us the desire, excitement and skills to serve Him. However, it is through purposeful training and reflection that we sharpen our God-given skills.

Barnabas

Jen Christopher, Jen Willette, Jen Blake, and Melissa Lowell encourage the student body through Barnabas.

This year we had a great time encouraging the faculty, staff, students, and each other. We met once a week and it was never boring! The creativity that was used in the notes was sometimes sweet, sometimes serious, mostly hilarious, and best of all - encouraging. Thanks for all the memories and the fun times! It has been such a joy working with this great group of students. Thank you to all the regulars who came faithfully, it was so wonderful having you in the group. Song of Solomon 8:8

Have a wonderful year and summer! May God bless you in whatever your life holds.

JUMP Drama Ministries is a partnership between the ACTS and SALT Drama Ministries. While ACTS is more of a relational focused youth ministry and SALT more performance based, we are linked by our common interest in spreading the Gospel message through the medium of drama. We seek to encourage each other in Christ-likeness and share the overflow of God's grace in our own lives with a hurting world.

Student Ministries

MISSION is a ministry that supports missionaries on the field by writing letters of encouragement to them and praying for their specific needs. Throughout the year, MISSION has had several missionary speakers from the ENC community who have shared about their call to ministry, life experiences in the mission field, and differences in culture. Working with the Wollaston Church's Nazarene Mission International (NMI) Council, we encourage everyone, whether they have a call to cross-cultural service or not, to support world missions.

Open Hand, Open Heart

Will Sarog, Rob MacDonald, Dan Mayer, April Gonet, and Erin Goddard feed the hungry and clothe the homeless through Open Hand, Open Heart.

It has been a great experience ministering and literally providing the homeless of Boston with an open hand and an open heart. We are called, as Christians, to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, and care for the sick, but when it all comes down to it, we are all merely servants of Christ, doing as He would do and sharing His love. I am greatly encouraged to have been a part of a group that recognizes that our sacrifice of a few hours on Saturday night, though small in comparison to the sacrifice Christ made for us on Calvary, means so much to those individuals to whom we were able to feed, clothe, and offer prayer. My many thanks to Kara White and Jan Burges for their leadership in the fall, as well as those who participated, supported, and prayed for the ministry over the course of the entire year. We all have the ability to serve the Lord in some capacity, and I thank everyone who participated this year and chose to serve.

A Cappella Choir

The A Cappella Choir is a musical ensemble striving for excellence in the understanding and performance of a variety of music. However, most important to our group is spiritual growth. A time of prayer and devotions is an integral part of every rehearsal in addition to perfecting the repertoire of each semester. The choir toured various cities in Maine, Pennsylvania, and New York stopping in youth centers and churches. Our closing concert for the fall semester was the annual Candlelight Christmas. Joined by fellow musicians from Tufts University, Wheaton College, and ENC's Choral Union, we closed the spring semester with a performance of Brahms Requiem at Tufts University and Jordan Hall.

2001-2002 has been good to the Chamber Singers of Eastern Nazarene College. As always, our schedule was filled with activities in the fall. The Renaissance Madrigal Feasts certainly gave us a strong beginning to an excellent year; it was a good time for all who participated. There was not an overseas tour this year, but the group is planning to tour in January 2003. The Chamber Singers' focus turned to a recording of spirituals for the second semester, as well as touring Maine and Pennsylvania with the A Cappella Choir.

Club Sports

Men's Club Volleyball

After a rough start, the Men's Volleyball Team's consistency took charge and helped to finish this season. Thanks to rigorous practices by Coach Constantine the team was able to play against teams from U-Conn, Northeastern, Boston College, Boston University, Tufts, MIT, Army, U-Mass, and U-Lowell. ENC was represented in tournaments at Northeastern, MIT, University of Hartford, and West Point. As the season concludes, the team is looking forward to getting uniforms, and, due to the lack of seniors, hopes to continue this current streak next year.

Women's Lacrosse Club

Women's Lacrosse was founded in 1998 by Joanna Constantine and Andrea Long. During the history of this club we have seen many new faces. This year we have 11 new players joining us. Our mission is to enjoy learning the game of lacrosse, while in fellowship with one another. We thank God for the abilities He has given us and we look forward to what He has in store for us this season! This year was to be one of our club's hardest. It was amidst the chaos of losing senior players and leadership from our founding members, new leaders adjusting to their roles, running practices, and scheduling games, when one of our new members suddenly passed away. Sarah Taylor was enthusiastic about trying lacrosse. At the practices she was able to attend, Sarah always tried her hardest and was very encouraging to all of us around her. Her enthusiasm and enjoyment for lacrosse will be missed very much. We dedicate this season in her memory!

"Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness. . ." (Matthew 6:33a) With this theme verse in mind, the goal of the Chemistry Club is to seek God in all our endeavors - academic, spiritual and social! Firmly believing that both science and Christianity can be fun, we make sure to have some good times. Though lacking a council this year, the Chemistry Club offers traditional activities including a Christmas party, winter game night, and spring barbecue. We look forward to fascinating guest lecturers who can provide leadership and direction to those students considering careers in Chemistry, Biology, or Health Science. So, between the traditional parties, speakers, and the occasional movie night, we have been blessed with fun and the fellowship of other students seeking Christ. . ." and all these things will be added unto you." (Matthew 6:33b)

Honors Society

Honor Society members are Dave Constantine, Jared Willemin, Heather Beckley, Tom Oord, Noel Wilson, Jon Batchelder, David Bullon, Julie White, Kara Reiman, and Katie Hartig.

For the past two years, it has been the job of the Honors Board to revamp the entire Honors Program. Many of our members felt that the program was not accomplishing what we thought the basis for an honors program should be - different work, not more work. So we began working towards changing that and have been working toward that end for some time. Unfortunately, some difficulties have come up along the way which have temporarily stalled our work, but we continue to work faithfully and diligently toward our goal of a new Honors Program. For the time being, it has been our goal to keep the honors students in contact with one another by having social events, including Christmas parties and barbecues.

Men's Soccer

Assistant Coach Eli Smith, Chris Greco, Gerson Monteiro, Jamie Prescott, Frank Garland, Evan Watters, Chris Russell, Jesse Ciras, Carson Wolf, Nathan Houle, Brian Paolini, Dan Gonzalo, Head Coach Christian Huizenga, Zach Miller, Jimmy Gardner, Trevor Smith, John Penney, Neil Eash, Dan Mayer, Zach Wiunderl, Sam Gendron, and Andy Tetrault make up this year's Men's Soccer Team.

Seniors Brian Paolini, Zach Miller, John Penney, and Gerson Monteiro led the team this year.

During our fall soccer season we experienced ups and downs like any other season, but through it all we remained together and we defined the meaning of "team." First year coach Christian Huizenga, brought that concept to us this year and that made the season amazing. We played a lot of quality teams this year and even if they showed they had more talent, they did not show us they had more heart. I expect great things for the future of ENC Men's Soccer.

Through all of our practicing and hard work we kept one purpose in mind; one focus. And that was our Lord God in Heaven who breathes life into us every day. We did not win many games but we won the hearts of each other. We won together and lost together as sisters in Christ. We learned that to be a team we must be unified with Christ at the center of all we do. We worked hard and played hard, but the relationships we built off the field will be remembered always. We thank and appreciate the faithful fans who came out to support us all season. We thank our dedicated coaches who never gave up on us - you taught us much more than a game. We are strong, we are invincible, we are women!

Seniors Megan O'Donnell, Jenny Nielson, Nicole Wilson, and Pamela Christie wind down their careers at ENC.

As I think about this season I am reminded of the importance of believing in your team. While we didn't finish with a winning record, our team is proud of what we accomplished together both on and off the court.

As always, we were faced with a tough schedule. Facing not only some of the best teams in New England, but also some strong conference teams. I think the team would agree that our most memorable game of the season was our 3-0 win against U-Mass Dartmouth. More important than the score was the way that we came together to play as a team after some difficult and disappointing losses. We ended our season at Colby-Sawyer in the CCC playoffs. However, we were able to leave with our heads held high knowing that we left everything we had on the court.

I am so proud to have been a part of this program for the past four years, especially this past one. This year's record does not give us credit for the way we played and worked for ourselves, our coach, our school, and most importantly our Heavenly Father who blessed us with all the ability that we have.

Coach Ken Hardee, Karen Churchill, Denise Mingledorff, Jennifer Sifferd, Lauren Paz, Shavonne Brumfield, Amy Borden, Kara White, and Heather Reilly make up the Women's Tennis Team.

Coach Hardee prays with the team before a match.

This year the Women's Tennis Team acquired two new members who added some new depth - freshman Shavonne Brumfield and senior Lauren Paz. Our team got off to a rocky start last season without any wins as a team, but a huge improvement was seen this year in all of our players. We were enthusiastic and ready to work hard on the court; it definitely paid off.

A more competitive level of tennis was played this year on our team. We won one non-conference match to Emmanuel, and the majority of our conference matches were extremely close, with some matches going for hours! Individually, each of us did rather well and junior Karen Churchill and sophomore Denise Mingledorff received honorable mentions at the conclusion of the season in the All Conference CCC report. I look forward to next season with great hopes for our team.

Cross Country

Coach Ed Gardner led Rob MacDonald, Scott Semchenko, EJ Lewis, Jarrod Spalding, Aaron Wilson, Stacey Smith, Julie White, Jen Bodley, Janelle White, and Laura Mosedale as this year's runners.

Captain Rob MacDonald led the team this year.

This season's Cross Country Team featured many athletes new to the program. Newcomers, Laura Mosedale, Julie White, Janelle White, and Stacey Smith provided hope for the future of the team, while Jen Bodley, coming off a summer of strong training, provided leadership on and off the trails. The Men's Team saw two runners, including Aaron Wilson, return from the 2000 campaign, with Jarrod Spalding, EJ Lewis and Scott Semchenko lacing up the spikes for the first time in their college career.

I was so proud to be a part of a team that exhibited resilience and toughness, both physically and mentally, throughout the course of the long season. We came together as a team and though we may not have enjoyed all the hills, sprints, and seemingly endless miles, it was truly special to get to know the people I had the privilege to call my teammates and brothers and sisters in Christ.

Captains Jon Angell and Jon Chesley valiantly led the team this year.

Overall, this season was a huge learning experience for the team. With only two returning players, Matt Chewning and Jon Chesley, it took a lot of time to mesh the guys together, but by the end of the season we really looked like a team. The season was filled with tons of distractions, Coach Porch returned halfway through the season and we lost eight players midway through the season. Still we found a way to stick together and rely on each other to become better. We are looking forward to getting back on the court and showing the CCC what ENC is all about.

This was a building season for the Women's Basketball Team in a few different ways. With the majority of our players being freshmen we have built a core for next season that will have at least one year of experience. Although we had a rough record towards the end of the season we definitely saw vast improvements in many areas. However, the greatest thing we built this season was an incredible bond among our team. I have never been on a team that was as united as we became throughout the season. Thanks Coach Hardee and Coach Milne for being such encouraging leaders.

Baseball

Making up the Baseball Team this year are Santi Hanna, John Morgan, Brian Paolini, Drew Hartsock, Shawn Manning, Derek Leppert, Matt Holt, Brian Wakulinski, Preston Bishop, Coach Todd Reid, Shaun Reed, Greg Harjula, Joe Stalica, Jason McPherson, Eric Haines, Jonathan Showe, Matt Swartzlander, and James Garvie.

Co-Captains Eric Haines and Jason McPherson led the team this year.

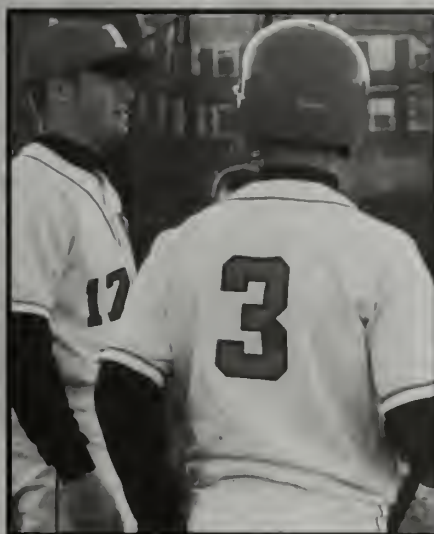

After last year's abrupt end to their season, the few returning member of the Crusader Baseball Team were determined to turn things around. And turn them they did. Head Coach Todd Reid and Co-captains Eric Haines and Jay McPherson brought in a stellar class of freshmen and sophomores so that the team might rebuild quickly. The fall was tough on these new recruits getting used to their settings at a new school and finding new friends, but the Crusaders played good baseball and finished out their fall season at 5-1. J-term came and so did the everyday workouts for this young group of ball-players who only boasted two juniors and two seniors to provide leadership. It was going to take hard work, a lot of hard work to compete this year, but these young men were up for the challenge. It was not uncommon to find the Crusaders running along Quincy Shore Drive, hitting downstairs in the multipurpose room, running line drills in the gym, or lifting weights. Spring Break sent the 19 ball-players to Ft. Myers, Florida to begin their season. Although they only went 1-5 in Florida, some big decisions were made which really brought the team together. Being a part of the Crusader Baseball Team is not only about learning the game of baseball, it is also about learning the game of life. After coming back home to Massachusetts, the Crusaders went on a tear going 3-1 in the conference and moving into a tie for first place. Junior Shawn Reed, was pitching like Randy Johnson and went on to lead the Crusaders and the Commonwealth Coast Conference in strikeouts. Junior second baseman Shawn Manning, was hitting the cover off the ball and was named 1st Team All Conference. The Crusaders closed their season in a dramatic playoff game against Nichols College which ended in the bottom of the ninth inning, 2-1. The Crusader Baseball Team finished their season at 14-17, one win shy of the school record for wins. Next year a new class of recruits will join the strong core of sophomores, juniors and seniors. In the words of Coach Reid, "We're not satisfied, not at all, we want to win that CCC Championship and we won't be satisfied until we do."

Captain Heather Hannon loves the game.

With a new coach, only two returning players, and nine incoming freshmen, we knew this season was going to be a rebuilding year. Although we may not have won many games, we worked hard, hustled, and had a blast. Florida was always a great time, especially when we came home with a win this year. The girls built friendships that will last past their four years of college. I want to thank Coach Wolf for stepping up to the plate this year and coaching. The softball program will only get stronger with his guidance. I see so much God-given talent in this young group of girls that I can't help getting so excited to think where they will be in another year or two!

The 2001-2002 Men's Varsity Tennis Team started off the season with only two veteran players and ten first year players. After a leg injury plagued Chris Popa, a seasoned veteran the team looked even more inexperienced. Although the Crusaders had a losing season, there were many bright spots which included two conference wins against Endicott and Wentworth. Other bright spots included excellent doubles play from Chris Greco and Jimmy Gardner, and competitive singles play from Chris Greco, Jimmy Gardner, Kevin Simonson, Addison Cooper, Matt Weston, and Jared Willemin (who finished with the most singles wins on the team). The team was also supported by newcomers John (Cap'n) Churchill, Terrence Green, Michael Magrans, Jeremy D. Scott, and Jamie Wilson. The Crusaders were coached by Ken "One Way" Hardee and the team looks forward to making the playoffs next season.

From the cry of a newborn,
to the whys of a two-year old,
to the laughter of a 10-year old,
to the dreams of a teenager,
to the blossoming of a woman.
You have been all that a mother could ever dream of or hope for.

The joy of your heart,
the sweetness of your spirit,
the wisdom of your soul,
the desire in your heart
to always do the right thing and be who God intended you to be, have always been and always will be an inspiration to me and those you meet.

Love, Mom

"I thank my God every time I remember you in my prayers. I pray with joy because of your faith, being confident of this: that He who began a good work in you, will carry it onto completion. I pray that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless until the day of Christ." ~Philippians 1:3-6, 9-10

Once Upon A Time. . .

There was a time when people gathered together in an atmosphere of genuine love for one another. A time when people were accepted, unconditionally, regardless of ancestry, social status, or their personal situation in life. It was a time when people freely gave to each other according to their need. Most often it involved simple caring and support. The scene was the first century A.D. - the early days of Christianity.

At Westbury, our goal is to build a Christian community that believes in and practices these values. So we accept you as you are: married, with or without children, single, single again, rich, poor, no church background, whatever. And we want to make this a community where every person is cared for.

We also believe that attending church should be an event the entire family looks forward to. Our Sunday morning messages are Bible centered and focus on solving challenges we face every day. We invite you to join us as we travel this adventurous and challenging road - and we'll have some fun along the way.

Loving God. . . Loving You!

Congratulations to our 2002 Senior, Rachel Lasher

During our time at ENC, our roads have intersected and merged, only to divide again. Whether your journey at ENC has just begun or has come to an end, the people we have met along the way and the experiences from which we have learned and grown have influenced the direction in which our road is going.

Thank you to everyone who helped put this book together, I couldn't have done it without any of you. First, to my sister Melissa, thank you for designing such an amazing cover and, most importantly, for being such a supportive and loving friend and sister. To my other sister Kirsten, thank you for being there and for stealing the computer with me. To my parents, thank you for being so encouraging and supportive, not only with the yearbook, but in every other aspect of my life. To my friends at home, Sam, Elyse, Amy Lynn, and Maggie, thank you for all your love and support. To those who submitted pictures and write-ups, especially at the last minute, thank you. Sue Ramey, thank you for being such a support system over the years. It has been great working with you and I will really miss it. To my advisor, James Heyward, thank you for the questions you've answered and the problems you've solved. Dr. Anita Henck, thank you for being so supportive and for helping me in so many ways. Cheryl Stone, you have taken care of so many details for me, thank you. Drew Hartsock, thanks for cleaning my desk, you unearthed some stuff I never knew was there - I still can't find my stamps. Tanya Miller, thanks for being so supportive and for always having encouraging words. Mike Lyle, thanks for signing all those pieces of paper. Jay Govoni, thanks for writing all those Rec. Life write-ups and for stuffing so many envelopes. Bryan Olds, thanks for keeping me company in the office and for being such a good friend. Jeremy D. Scott, thank you for all of your help and support over the years and for being such a great friend. Amanda Flowers, you have become so special to me over the years. Thank you so much for being there and for being such an amazing friend. Tara Brooke Watkins, thank you for always being there with a shoulder I could lean on. Your friendship means so much to me and I don't know what I would have done without it. Thank you to my staff for all the time, effort and hard work you've put into this book. Jocelyn Darcy, Jessica Joseph, and Megan O'Donnell, thank you for taking so many great pictures. Suzette Whetstone, Beth Starr, Kara Reiman, and Melissa Lowell, thank you for all the time and effort you put into your sections - they look great. Melissa Kenrick, I can't thank you enough for organizing the photography, for taking so many great pictures, and, most importantly, for being such a wonderful friend. Ashley Dyke, you have done an amazing job gathering ads and making sure I didn't spend too much of "your" money. Lastly, Shannon Joubert, we spent quite a few all-nighters with each other putting this book together. Thank you for all of your hard work, I couldn't have done it without you. Good luck next year!

As your journey continues after ENC, remember the experiences you had, the beliefs you developed, the values you gained, the mentors you found, and the friends you made. Don't worry about tomorrow or what it may bring. Be open to the road that God has designed and remember that without His guidance you will not experience what He has planned just for you. So trust God, take His hand, and let Him lead you down the road.

In Him,

Cara L. Paulson
